COMICCRAFT

Phase 6 - Project Testing

Testing is performed to verify that ComicCraft works as expected.

Testing activities include:
• Checking whether the application starts correctly.
• Checking user input handling.
• Checking story/content processing.
• Checking comic output generation.
• Checking the display of generated results.
• Identifying and correcting errors.

Testing helps ensure that the application is stable and that the major functions work correctly before demonstration.